SARAH BLANK

Sarah Blank has been a luminary in the world of kitchen design for over 35 years. She earned her stripes working for Richard Sammons of Fairfax & Sammons Architects in Palm Beach in the early 1990s, as well as studying at the Institute of Classical Architecture & Art. She has an innate knack for integrating expertly functioning design for the kitchen, pantry, and bath into the house's architecture.

Blank has collaborated with some of the top names in design and architecture including Bunny Williams, Gil Schafer, Thomas Jayne, Brian McCarthy, and Mark Ferguson of Ferguson & Shamamian Architects.
